Two questions

Laying out a debate on Deafness

[against

1. Do [

[] have a right to continue the Deaf World

- a. Do parents have a right against their children to continue the Deaf World?
- b. Do parents have a right against the state to continue the Deaf World?
- c. Does the Deaf World have a right to continue against the state?
- d. Does the Deaf World have a right to continue against Deaf parents?
- e. Does the Deaf World have a right to continue against children?

2. Do [parents] do something wrong to their children by continuing the Deaf World?

Davis

- Yes
- This necessarily closes children's futures

Mills

- It depends
- On...?

- Yes
- Because deafness is a disability (a harmful medical condition?)

Deaf world response (Lane)

- No
- Is deafness harmful? (Is it purely harmful?)
- Is it a medical condition?

, 7

A contested conditional:

If ______ is true of condition x, then x is a [disability / harmful medical condition] and there is no right to spread x